Hi Wayne, I know we usually have it on Saturday, but the last time we met, remember we decided Dec 16? I posted it as the 16th, and then later realized it would be Friday, but it was too late to change. Anyways, since 17th is my birthday, I think it's good to make an exception this time and keep it on Friday, as announced. We'll start at 2 pm, but if people need to come later they can, since it's a Friday. -akhilesh
