Subject: peavy classic 50 problem
Posted by Javi on Mon, 25 Jul 2005 01:00:37 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Ive been having a problem with my classic 50/410 combo for the past week. I was playing n a fuzz started to come out of the amp and became alot stronger. I tried turning it off n letting it take a break but it came back the same. Im not sure if this means its new tube time or not, but i need to figure out whats causing that because it makes the amp unusable. anyone have any ideas?