Subject: what's the best sounding cab for JSX?

I play through a Peavey JSX Head and an XXL cab with a Ibanbez RG320 guitar. I'm in a heavier band (post hardcore) and I just wanted to hear your opinion on different guitar cabs. I'm looking into Orange but I really dont like the price and I'm low on cash. I'm not happy with my XXL cab and want something new. What do you think I should look at?
