The 12 Shivas Dancing is from the above link to other sonotube links. I have simply no way of building anythinginto the floor, but there is an Open Baffle site that showsa number of these projects. And in here, you may be able to do a search for The World's Biggest Speaker... a project made in Italywhere a concrete form as big as a basement makes the basshorn. Makes you all tingly, doesn't it? ;-)Here is another sonotube which has been in the TL forum...
