My other half does that too. So she buys a leather couch; nice; Drexel Heritage with Mahogany trim. It looks great in the garage next to my old Norton; because the couch is too big to fit through any of our doors or windows.Now I have to drop the front door and remove all the jambs to get it in; which of course means we might as well get a new entrance door. The big bargain is now about retail price. Where is this Craig guy; I'm gonna kill him.
