I have a single pair of 7788. And at $30 each for spares, this is the rarest tube I have considered using in one of my experiments(when replacements are sooooo bloody 'spensive). I have not done it yet though....SE 2A3 maybe for the TX's...or PP 45.Did I mis-understand? It looks like all four got sent to one person, and the other three of you will have to wait for an individual shipment.regards,Douglas
