Hey-Hey!!!,I am not trying to make things troublesome for you folks. Like I said in the begining(seems like it was a Looooong time ago sometimes), I have built soem very similar to this. Not one exactly like it, but similar enough I figure we can find all the troublesome details BEFORE they bite us on the backside.It is one heck ov a responsibility, and when I make a discovery, especially in an area I thought I had all wrapped up, I am going to tell you about it RIGHT THEN!If this thing started blowing up and I found reason to suspect it of being unstable I would deserve a lot worse that what you would give me if I kept it to myself.I am just ranting along, I am not taking anything personally, just speaking what is on my mind at this time now. Things are progressing a lot more smoooooothly than I anticipated. You guys do have a bit of green invested and I feel the need to shepard your success quite carefully.regards,Douglas
