Hey, thanks to you for the mosfets! And thanks to all for your support... I actually have (almost) all the parts, but some of them are "suboptimal" - some capacitors, and power transformer. As I said, I ordered custom PT ("ae-europe.nl"), but really don't know when I can expect it - they are very "economical" in E-mail explanations/answers:-). However, better than "Amplimo" (I used their toroidal transformers before) - they never responded to my two E-mails where I ask for quotation for custom PT :-). Anyway, I'm grateful for your offer, I'll send you E-mail.
