I don`t know, I didn`t ask, anyhow E-mail comunication is slow and "economical", and their vacation is from 07/18-08/08, and they are almost 2000km away - what can I do?I`m pretty sure that I didn`t receive someone elses package - I got some other specific small things I also ordered (Ag wire, teflon isolated wire, condenser clamp).They don`t have good-organized web page (products & prices) and E-mail communication, they are slow - probably problems of the rel. small company with audio stuff not their priority - IMO.But, they have good-quality transformers and good prices.
