I bought these in 1986 and I never used them. Always kept in a climate controlled area in the boxes. It is a royal shame that these are still sitting around. I know someone would love to have them.I want 250 plus shipping for the pair. 48 states please Each box weighs 7 lbs.A reasonable trade may be considered...tell me what you want to trade. No Junk PLEASE> Yes, they are new, never connected, in new condition. Again...someone that needs them or would like to have them..post here with your email address and I will email you.I remember paying close to 500 for this pair
