I have a pair of MCM 55-2421 8" woofers, never used, DC resistance of the voice coils matched at 4.1 ohms each. Purchased to build stereo subs that now, because of a recent move, won't be built anytime soon. MCM sells 'em for $32 each; you can have this pair for $35 plus shipping. Prefer not to sell separately. Purchased in January or February 2005.E-mail me at audiokinesis@yahoo.com and we'll work out the details.Duke
