

---

Subject: Alternate tuning for the JBL 2226

Posted by Wayne Parham on Wed, 12 Dec 2001 02:03:42 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

The 2226 works well in boxes from 2 - 5 cubic feet tuned to 35Hz - 40Hz. You can make an EBS alignment from a larger box tuned a little lower. All of those are valid alignments and work pretty well in different conditions. Corner loading has a specific requirement for best response. The alignment should create a conjugate of room response. What you want is a smooth rolloff, not a loading.