

---

Subject: Compressed fiber carpet pad for cabinet damping?

Posted by Garland on Sun, 16 Dec 2001 00:04:02 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

I have a bunch of this wool-like 1/2" thick carpet pad that I got for use in a tapered quarter wave tube project and was wondering if it can adequately be used to line the specified interior surfaces of my Theater 4's? It is pretty dense stuff- not fluffy like insulation that I've heard is OK to use. Can anybody help me out here? What is best to use? Thanks!Garland