Subject: Re: Out-of-print Audio mags
Posted by steve f on Mon, 14 Aug 2006 04:07:30 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I purchased another set of the available issues of "The Audio Critic." IMHO Peter Aczel is perhaps the only member of the audio press, along with his contributors, who isn't a shill of high end audio advertising. His articles are more important for editorial insight, than product review. He does have the respect of acedemics who probably scoff at the typical rags. As he is eighty years old, I wonder how much longer he will continue to write.