I agree, 100%. Damir is a stand-up guy. He explained himself pretty well, I thought. Kinda funny too - The distinction between "complete idiot" and "incomplete idiot". Perhaps "person with foot in mouth disease" might have been more what Damir wanted to say about Aczel. I know I appear that way about half the time, so Damir could rightly say the same thing about me. But I would expect a moderator to delete that, you know.
