Garland, I actually live in Omaha, NE, but if you make it out this way you're welcome to come see them. You can check out the Basie kit at diyhifisupply.com. They're an AA sponsor. It looks a lot more "finished" than the Foreplay, and it goes about things a bit differently... so I've read. Mine's on the way from Hong Kong, but someone else is now the American distributor. I think it's DIYCable.com. Anyway, I can't wait. Kevin
