All you'll need are the T/S specs for the woofer. I'm sure they're easy to find and I think I've probably been told them more than once. So but if you'll get 'em and write them here, I'll tell you the dimensions of the cabinet. Alternately, you might grab a copy of PiAlign and run the numbers yourself. There are several Altec fans here, and tons of JBL guys too. See the link below for
