
Subject: 128kB or higher can sound VERY good
Posted by Sam P. on Fri, 23 Aug 2002 16:28:09 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

and I think "live direct to digital" with the simple miking techniques you mentioned has lots of potential. Some MP3's have sounded "as good as good gets", or at least pretty darn good, to me. I attribute this to the lack of mixing/modification of the original recordings. Some venues might frown on unauthorized recording of the performances though...Sam
