Cape Town is definitely the ultimate holiday. The cheapest most beautiful place. A Big Mac with extra large fries and an extra large coke will cost you under $2. Comfortable accommodation can cost you anything from $10 (self catering) to $2000 per night (The Hotels on "Millionaires Row" where the pop stars stay) An average very comfortable room in a 3 to 4 star hotel can cost you around $35 dollars a night. There has been a major cleanup on crime recently. But don't take my word search the web and see for yourself. <http://www.capetourism.org> <http://www.gocapetown.co.za> will be happy to show you around so if you do decide to come, please mail me and we can take this discussion further. Take Care Oscar
