Several new exhibitors have signed up to be at the Lone Star Audiofest in May. Keep checking the exhibitors page on the LSAF website for new updates. I'm looking forward to seeing everyone there! If you haven't made your reservations yet, be sure to tell the Embassy Suites you're with the Lone Star Audiofest. We're listed as the "LSAF" group in their reservation system. Doing so will ensure you get the LSAF rate. There is no exhibitors fee, but telling them you're with LSAF will save some money for you as well as ensure you're grouped with the rest of the exhibitors. Send a note to webmaster@audioroundtable.com and let us know if you're planning to set up as an exhibitor. If you would like, also send a logo and photos of what you'll be bringing and we'll put it on the LSAF website. Let us know if you would like to give a talk. We have a conference room available on Saturday, so if you're interested in doing a seminar, let us know and we'll pen you in. See the schedule to know what slots are open. Also, a suggestion for each of the exhibitors: Have a banner made to hang in the atrium in front of your room. Bassmaxx did this last year at GPAF, and I thought it was a great idea. A 6' x 3' banner is perfect.
