You're exactly right about the reason for the trip. It was because we were all drawn together. I'm sooooo glad that we did this, and I wish we could see each other every couple of days.Here in Tulsa, I get together with a regular bunch of friends about two or three times a week. Pretty often really, and it is really nice. The Lima event had the same feel. We have built a relationship on the forum and feel a connection with each other. There is a sort of continuity, like we'd been friends you like. We all know that Peggy needs you so I think everyone will understand you skip on us for a while. Just always feel welcome and know you're missed, that's all.Thanks a million for putting this together, my friend.
