Sorry, this post is way overdue. I should have posted the pics from the Midwest Audiofest weeks ago. But I'm just now getting around to it.This is a collection of the photos taken on Alona's camera. There were some other great shots taken by lots of other people, and I'd really like to have copies of them. So if you guys would chime in with your photos too, I'd love to include them here.Here's the pics!What a motley crew!Seated from left to right are Ron Semega and his girlfriend Sharon, Mike Baker, Christine and Bill Martinelli, Alona Parham, Wayne Mark and George Duemm.Another photo of our friendsFrom left to right are Ron and Sharon, Mike, Me, Alona and Wayne Mark.You wanna know why everyone is smiling? It's not just the tunes, and not just the splendid company, although everything was great in that regard. But it's also the microbrew that Wayne Mark brought. Everyone really enjoyed it, and I think Wayne might have been the most popular guy there!And another pic of the gangFrom left to right, seated are Ron, Sharon, Mike, George Duemm, Alona and Wayne.You might ask yourself, "Where's Sounded excellent, especially in mind that the total system cost is very low.And check out Alona in the mirror. That mirror always managed to catch someone!Another leave. I know that Mike Baker was exhausted and had lots of other things going on in his life. He has said that the show was quite a strain.But Mike - Please - Do it again! It was great fun! I just really enjoyed being with you guys, every one of you.Next time, I hope to see some of those that couldn't make it, like Sam Payne, Adam Bird, Jerrod Harden, Ken Randazzo, Jerry Parker, Dr. Edwin Falconi, Dr. Kevin Grier and on and on. Come visit us next time if you can - These guys are the best little clan you could ever want to be around!
