Please take some photos of everyone at the Northeast Bottlehead meeting and post 'em here, would you? There are a lot of you guys that I would have like to have seen and visited with, so snap some shots, would you? What all will you be bringing? What about Garland? Does Thomas of Jeff come out? Maybe everyone that's planning to be there could sound off here and make the rest of us envious of all the fun you guys will be having. Please do take some pictures!
