Let me know what you've got and I'll let you know if I'll let it stand on the forum. In general, I don't delete posts if they aren't offensive and aren't overly commercialized. What I mean by that is if a competing manufacturer were to post, I'd probably knock it off. If an eBay'er or someone like that continually used the forum to get free advertising, I'd do the same thing. But if it's just an occasional deal that someone has or finds - something that would benefit forum members without being unfair - that's something I think is of interest and I let it stand.
