Hello Pi Guys :D I just wanted to show you a pic of my COMPLETED speakers ;P (dang am I slow!) I can't thank you Pi guys enough...time after time you guys never seem to tire of helping out us "new guys". Thanks. Bill and Bill...I can't say enough about how much you guys have helped me out with this project. It's just so great to have a friendly place (such as this) with knowledgeable people (like yourselves) who never hesitate to share their skills with the rest of us...thanks! enjoy the music!
