You can order Dynamat Xtreme form the Dynamat website (dynamat.com), but I found it locally. Their largest market is car stereo. I found it at several car stereo installation shops as well as at Circuit City and Best Buy. It is also available from a number of websites. You may also want to check out the 'Be Quiet' products (be-quiet.com). Their 'Brown Bread' product is probably a good alternative at about 60% of the cost of the Dynamat product.AstroSonic
