Thanks for the kind words. We had another guy spray the cabs with laquer...what kind, I'm not sure what he ended up using. The finish did turn out pretty good...although, not as good as yours ;) After we got the cabs back from him...I thought about doing the trick you explained to me...but man, I'm just too nervous that I'll end up screwing something up. Hey...unless you want ta come over and finish them up ;) hehe...just kiddin' I may end up finishing like you explained to me...but fer now...I'm just gonna listen to'em :D In this pic you can get a little better idea what the stain and finish look like. thanks again :) enjoy the music!
