General specifications can be seen on the Price Sheet, found at the "Info" link at

Speakers web site and we should probably remedy that sometime. But there are several photos in various posts on this forum - Mostly photos uploaded of speakers that people have built with their kits and what not. Do a search here for "photos" and "pics" and you'll find several. Let me know what you think you might be interested in and I'll send you the plans.
