What hotel will you be in? If you haven't already decided, let me suggest that there are several hotels that offer weekly/monthly rates and have refrigerators and ovens and/or microwaves. I did a lot of work out of town last year and staying in those was much better than rooms without refrigerators and microwaves. Tulsa has Amerisuites, Candlewood Suites, Extended Stay, Residence Inn and Springhill Suites. Check those out if you haven't already booked a room.
