Hi Wayne and fellow enthusiasts! Long time no talk. Thought I would pop in and say hi, see how things are. Things are pretty busy around here. I just got back from a three week vacation in British Columbia, very nice out there. I may move there. Also got a new girlfriend and concentrating on building up my business. Wayne, I burned up a hard drive while I was gone on my trip (figures) and, of course, lost all of my personal files, business files, and programs. I'm looking at getting my hands on SPL trace/view, as well as speaker workshop again. Last I remember you had them up for download, but I can't find them. Where can I pick them up?Thanks bud!Adam
