I got a 105 in a 70 last year...the State Trooper knocked it down from 120 to 105 since 120 would have been a mandatory wreckless. Basically 35mph over the limit is the max allowable. Anyways I was on a straight away and well in control of the situation, the bastard just happened to catch me at the worst possible time. I paid a well known speeding ticket lawyer out of Seattle $500 and he got it tossed. ;-) he he!
