same cabinets as are used for the Omega, Kilomax or JBL Professional Series drivers. Note that

It seemed better slide this speaker into the Professional Series line, since that is specifically

JBL 2241, 2242 or 2245 woofer and a JBL 2123 or 2120 midrange is now called a Professional cart. We're an Eminence distributor and carry the full line of Eminence products. You'll find our prices very competitive, more so than any other online distributor I'm aware of. So be sure to check our prices before you buy. Wayne
