Subject: Re: Showroom in Tulsa
Posted by Wayne Parham on Wed, 20 Oct 2004 21:46:39 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I had a studio attached to my warehouse for a long time, but recently moved everything out of it. Ninety-nine percent of the people building my kits or buying finished loudspeakers are from all over the world, so I rarely used it for demos. It wasn't very productive to maintain the place, but it sure was fun for having little parties. Warehouse StudioI am talking to a high-end retailer right now about setting up a display in his store here in Tulsa, so that is the direction I plan to go for the local market. In the meantime, I'd like to invite you to my home. I have Paramours and a Foreplay and Seduction, and you're more than welcome to come hear them on various models of the Paramours.I'd also like to encourage you to join us at the Great Plains Audio Club meetings. There are a lot of nice folks that meet every couple of months and I think you'll have a nice time. Here are some write-ups with photos of the last few gatherings:Great Plains Audio Club MeetingGreat Plains Audio Club Meeting - November 2003April Meeting of the Great Plains Audio ClubGreat Plains July 2004 Audio Club meeting photosGreat Plains September 2004 Audio Club meeting photos