I'd like to use BB, but haven't found anything but the stuff from HD or Lowes.  There is a very small hardwoods place that I will check out tomorrow, since they aren't open on the weekends.  I want to keep the costs reasonable, but am definitely willing to spend the extra to make them look nice.Nope, not from New England.  Amarillo, TX.  But I do check in on the BH forum occasionally as I am thinking of making a Seduction for my future TT.
