Looks like PE smartened up and dumped the 80% of inventory that only accounted for 20% of sales.Especially with Ohio's Personal Property tax on business inventories.I sure wish they'd clearance some Morel's; I really want to try the horn loaded tweet but not at $60 per.Neither Madisound or Vifa have heard of this "iron law of retailing". I'm scratching my head over the differences between 4 MG series tweeters besides a couple of cycles Fs.
