Cool!!!I listened to a Classe Cap-151 amp into a set of the top of the line B&W speakers right after I moved to Amarillo. Incredible sounding. They had the amp and a matching CDP (CDP-10) left over from the year before as demo models in the neighborhood of $2500 for the pair. Those are the only Classe products I've ever seen, but they sure were nice.If I ever get this dang Darling project finished I'll have a summer amp. Just need to pick some OPT's and I'm almost home.
