I looked at the T-Amps (if we are thinking about the same things, <http://www.audiosector.com/lm3875.shtml>). Definitely high quality stuff. Peter definitely has an eye for detail. I'm thinking the same thing about those drivers. Though $70 for a pair of Fostex drivers and then another $60+ for the amp to drive them plus a sub ($150+) to fill out the bottom end and it starts to get pricey for PC speakers.
