I don't think Bill overpowered his JBL 2123 drivers. He's a tube amp guy. More than likely they were damaged when he received them. At any rate, Bill said he replaced them with Eminence Delta 10 mids, and he is happy with them. Admittedly, they aren't 2123's, but a pair of new Delta 10's definitely sounds better than a pair of blown 2123's.
