I haven't heard Diana Krall over and over again like so many people complain of doing when they visit trade shows and hi-fi shops. So I haven't burned out on her and for me, she is new and fresh and very enjoyable.Diana KrallI hear her album "The Girl In The Other Room" is due to be released next month, April 2004, and is co-written by Elvis Costello. Seems like I heard they were engaged to be married. Does anyone know if they ever tied the knot? They just did a benefit gig together and with Elton John too, if I'm not mistaken. I think it was to benefit a hospital charity or something like that, in memory of her mother. Her website is linked to the photo above, so I suppose I can go check my facts and see.
