Some of my favorites are:Network - a timeless classic, every scene, every line has weight and meaning. Incredible acting. Played my DVD of it recently and was amazed how it still holds up.Dr. Strangelove - another movie that just gets better with age.The Godfather Parts 1 & 2 - 'nuff said!Porky's - juvenile, immature, childish and just plain fun!Animal House - see Porky's.High Plains Drifter - My favorite western.The Lord Of The Rings Trilogy - epic filmmaking, I never thought they would make as good as they turned out.Forbiden Planet - 1950s sci-fi that still holds up. Check out a young Leslie NielsenBest regards, Ralph
