She takes way too much from Julie London. Early Rosemary Clooney with the trio, now that is singing! Shirley Horn, a genius. Here's one if you like and respect real jazz; Carol Sloane, if you can find it, theres one with Stan Getz that is real nice and another with Bud Shank. Try Live at Thirtieth Street,Its mono but great sound. The newest is one of the best female jazz records, called "Love You Madly", it has Art Farmer,Kenny Burrell,Clifford Jordan,and Kenny Barron, definately the A-list.Contemporary Records c-14049. How come no one mentions "Dusty In Memphis"? One of the finest,listen to it at least once a week.
