

---

Subject: Re: Ghost Dog

Posted by Manualblock on Fri, 19 Mar 2004 00:22:39 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Rick, Two things about art house films, quirky is good but they must have a hook, some kind of primal emotional connection, Tarentino said he writes his movies so you can play them like a stack of 45 rpm records, either all at once or portioned out according to mood and Pulp Fiction is a perfect example. Ever see "Down By Law"?, "Stranger Than Paradise"?

---