One of my favorites of all time. In that year it was Ebert's #1 film. I hardly ever get tired of it...saw it about the same number of times as Blade Runner which is quite a few. Something that gets overlooked quite a bit is the made for tv adaptation of Frank Herbert's Dune. Dune and Children of Dune I have gone back to numerous times as well. It is _my_ "Lord of the Rings." Oh yeah, here's a film that is hard to find but it shows ol' V. Mortenson before he got to play the king: it's called The Reflecting Skin directed by Philip Ridley. It's unforgettable.
