It's soooo humid here, I've been working out in the porch, ducking back in under the fan, going out, coming in.....Just have to wire up t'other and install the drivers.I've got the board sitting on the cabinet bottom on a 1/2" thick piece of EAR C-1002 with a layer of Microsorb holding the EAR to the cabinet and the board to the EAR stuff. $75 bucks worth of damping, hope it does something!So who knew that the title of this post is a line from Strategic Air Command starring James Stewart, William Holden and June Allyson? How do I retain shit like this? I was about 8 years old when that movie played!
