Ever hear that collaboration between Nusrat and Eddie Van Halen? What a song! I think it was featured in the soundtrack of Dead Man Walking the movie. I can only play his music when no one else is around. The Harry Smith is some good stuff, I listen and in my humble opinion I hear that those people really put something on the line each day of their lives and it shows in the stunning depth of their music and lyrics. We need some recommendations for roots Reggae stuff, such as the Mighty Sparrow, which examples are the best? Blind Willie Johnson, there's someone who has walked the walk! Try Mosaic Records They do a great job.
