Such a great movie! Would have never known with grown-up kids but it was recommended.Wonderful story line and fabulous subtle facial expressions of the Monsters. And the Door Scene! Great irony is that night before, Netflix deposited on my doorstep tour de force "Affliction" featuring James Coburn, the voice of the Crab guy!!!!!!!``I met with Coburn before the picture began,'' Schrader told me, ``and told him how carefully Nolte prepares for a role. I told Coburn that if he walked through the movie, Nolte might let him get away with it for a day, but on the second day all hell would break lose. Coburn said, `Oh, you mean you want me to really act? I can do that. I haven't often been asked to, but I can.' '' He can.Haven't seen Affliction? Treat yourself. Haven't seen Monsters. Inc.? Shoot yourself!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
