Hi Charlie,I want to see the Manchurian Candidate the Bourne Supremacy too. And I'm really anxious to see Exorcist, the Beginning.A bunch of us like going to movies every week. Alona and I and a group of six other friends went out and saw the Stepford Wives this evening. Slow going, but fun. We saw Hellboy a week or two ago and it was pretty cool. I'm anxious to see Spiderman II also.Sometimes we wait for a while and see movies at the cheapie theaters, especially those films we don't feel we "just have to see." That way if a movie isn't any good, we can have fun heckling it. Most times, we just enjoy each other's company but sometimes the movie is good. Once in a while there's a great movie, and then we buy it on DVD when it comes out in the stores later.Wayne
