You all are going to think I'm fulla beans today, or maybe that I had a bit too much holiday celebration last night. Sort of. Check this out: A few nights ago I was deliriously tired and did something that only sleep deprivation would inspire me to do. I got out a bunch of old KTel records from the seventies and eighties that were given to me and made a tape that I called 1979. Then the next morning, I went out to get a haircut and listened to it in the car on the way. Man, that was the coolest thing! Now I'm glad I made that tape. Stuff like Cheap Trick, Peter Frampton, Gary Numan (Cars), Styx, Gary Wright, Blondie, Sniff 'N the Tears (Driver's Seat), The Cars, M (Pop Music), Devo, etc. Just a bunch of music that I didn't buy the albums for but heard on the radio. Crank it up real loud in an old school muscle car and it's just like being a kid again. You better check it out. Don't think about it 'cause you won't do it. Just dust off all your old records and make a recording. It's a lot of fun! Cheap Trick Peter Frampton Gary Numan Styx Gary Wright Blondie Sniff 'N the Tears The Cars M Devo
