thats the thing with the media , they make you think you know whats going on ,but really your only getting a very small portion :-)Politics for example? :-Pare we any more informed than 100yrs ago?sure,news took 2yrs but you still got it.Is the 'news' of any better quality?of more truthful nature?What about socrates,who said we should all be thinkers,philosophers, not ALL not some..i think discernment and thinking is more important than knowing stupid stuff ,our news is terrible, 1/2 the time is advertisements, and the 1st topic is always rugby,the nations religion, then 3minutes about important crisis' in the world,then a stupid topic ...then sport:-S
