Yeah but the Democratic administration is not removing my rights as a citizen now and they are not engaged in an illegal war now and they are not allowing terrorists into the country through Mexico now and the list goes on and on. History will explain itself through hindsight; at the time of RBG appopintment there was a tremendous pressure to find a female for the bench. She was qualified; certainly as qualified as Thomas; jeez; ever read one of his opinions?I don't want anything both ways I want Bush gone. So do we compare every Rep act with every Dem act going back how far?I gotta run..to be conmtinued.
